

The Midland Metropolitan University Hospital and City Hospital

Designed to help you, your family and everyone in our local area to get better access to health and care

Urgent Treatment Centre

It is called Summerfield Treatment Centre.

Our address is

1st floor Summerfield Primary Care Centre.
134 Heath Street,
Winson Green,
Birmingham
B18 7AL

We are open from 8am to 8pm.

Our email is

www.summerfieldgpucc.nhs.uk

When to go to the Urgent Treatment Centre

Suspected broken bones.

Strains and Sprains.

Injuries like cuts and bruises.

Stomach pain, being sick and having an upset stomach.

Skin infections and rashes.

High Temperatures.

If you need a prescription.

Emergency contraception.

Emergency department

It is called the Midland Metropolitan University Hospital.

Our address is
Grove Lane
Smethwick
B66 2QT

City Hospital emergency department will be moving here from the 10th November 2024.

Your new emergency department is open 24 hours a day

At this hospital there is:

- 11 emergency operating theatres.
- A separate accident and emergency entrance.
- An adults only accident and emergency that offers key treatments and expert assessments quicker.

When to go to the Accident and Emergency Department or call 999

Signs of a heart attack.

Signs of a stroke.

Sudden confusion.

A suicide attempt.

Severe difficulty breathing.

Choking.

Excessive blood loss.
Excessive means lots.

Severe injuries or sudden swelling.

Seizures and fits.

City Health Campus will include

Birmingham Treatment Centre will offer outpatients and treatments that can be done in a day.

Birmingham and Midland Eye Hospital will offer all appointments to do with the eyes.

Sheldon Block will have appointments to help you manage your pain, your skin and other therapies.

By moving all the appointments this way there should be less cancelled, and patients will get more specialised care.